Agriculture, Transportation and Logistics industries featured at upcoming virtual job fair
Other local employers from any industry invited to attend

Friday, January 28, 2022-- Salinas, CA – The Monterey County Workforce Development Board is teaming up with co-sponsors including: the Monterey County Farm Bureau, the Agricultural Personnel Management Association and Western Growers Center for Innovation & Technology by encouraging local job seekers to take advantage of the remarkable employment opportunities currently available by joining the organizations virtual job fair on Wednesday, February 16 from 10am-1pm. Job seekers must use the following link to register in advance and to attend the event: <https://pvapi.premiervirtual.com/s/xGAaX8>

While the virtual event is open to all Monterey County businesses that are hiring, it is designed specifically to feature employers hiring within the Agricultural, Transportation and Logistics industries, as hundreds of workers are needed to work within these industries in Monterey County.

“Now is the time for Monterey County job seekers – those unemployed or those looking to change careers – to connect with employers. Hundreds of local employers are hiring right now, and it will be easier to find the job you want now before the job market becomes more competitive,” said MCWDB Executive Director, Christopher Donnelly. “And our Career Centers are open again to provide free employment and training services.”

Job seekers can call the Career Center at 1 (866) 666-9332 or email MontereyEmploymentHelp@EquusWorks.com to set up an appointment if they need help upgrading their resumes, practicing their interview skills, and registering or participating in virtual job fairs.
