Career Center Opens at Hartnell College's Castroville Education Center

North Monterey County job seekers encouraged to utilize new office

Wednesday, August 17, 2022, Salinas, CA -- Local job seekers in north Monterey County now have another resource at their disposal when looking for work. The Monterey County Workforce Development Board is pleased to announce that it is co-locating at Hartnell College's new Castroville Education Center at 10241 Tembladera Street in Castroville.

The career center will be open on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 10am-3pm. Job seekers may call (831) 708-6511 or email: MontereyEmploymentHELP@EquusWorks.com for resume, interview, networking and training assistance.

"We're very pleased to partner with Hartnell College to expand our employment and training opportunities to North Monterey County residents," said Monterey County Workforce Development Board, Executive Director, Christopher Donnelly. "We want people to think of us first when it comes to employment and training. We're here to help you succeed."

The Monterey County Workforce Development Board integrates public and private partnerships to train and place individuals with the skills that employers need. Through its four career center offices located in Castroville, Marina, Salinas and Seaside, job seekers connect to the services, community resources and referrals they need to prepare for middle-skill jobs in growing industry sectors such as Agriculture, Tourism and Hospitality, Health and Social Assistance, Logistics, Transportation and Construction.
