Know a young person looking for work this summer? Learn why the month of May might be a great month for jobseekers to try something new

Wednesday, April 23rd, Salinas, CA -- Are you tired of those online job rejections that are getting you nowhere fast? Ever feel like HR departments are not your friend? Then why not join one of our upcoming Youth & Young Adult job fairs taking place in the month of May? Monterey County Works is hosting two events to meet your needs. Follow the hyperlinks below to register on our website.

- Youth & Young Adult Job Fair, Wednesday, May 14th @ Salinas Career Center, 344 Salinas Street, Salinas from 1pm-4pm
- Youth & Young Adult Job Fair, Saturday, May 17th @ Monterey Adult School, 1295 LaSalle Avenue, Seaside, Multi-Purpose Room # 13, from 2pm-4pm

“While these events are designed for young people between the ages of 16-24, all are welcome to attend, said Monterey County Works, Executive Director, Christopher Donnelly. We had a successful event in South County a couple weeks ago and are looking to bring employers and jobseekers together this summer.”

Jobseekers needing assistance registering for upcoming events are encouraged to reach out to the Monterey County Works, Career Center at (831) 796-3335. Learn more about these events and others at: www.montereycountyworks.com
